

HCC-SouthShore
Campus Advisory Council Meeting Highlights
October 5, 2009

- Dr. Witt gave a great welcome to our guests for the IAC meeting held here on October 2
- Guest presenters at the IAC spoke about the United Way and the Center for Innovative Teaching and Technology (CITT)
- Floyd Ballard will remain the dedicated person at the SouthShore campus for Instructional Design and Technology
- The United Way campaign will run until November 13th. See Maria Torres, Maura Scully Murry, Joeel Torres, or Norm Holland for pledge forms
- HCC is working towards having one portal for students, faculty, and staff instead of Webadvisor and Campus Cruiser
- There is a community resource binder in the Student Services area. This binder contains information regarding childcare and economic assistance, counseling, housing, food banks, etc. Please see Vanessa Borges for more information
- There have been complaints about the Food Service that Sodexo provides. Steve Shields and Cristina Cabanilla have agreed to meet with the CAC and SGA to address these concerns
- About half of our FT employees participated in the Benefits and Wellness Fair. Stay tuned for upcoming Wellness Seminars
- The HCC Walking Works Fitness challenge kicked off this month.

To register, go to www.walkingworks.com and click on the “Sign Up” link.

A screen will appear asking if you are participating in Walking Works as part of a group—click “Yes.”

A drop-down menu will appear with a list of groups. Choose:

Florida Blue Cross Blue Shield, followed by Hillsborough Community College, HCC Fall Fitness Challenge and finally the “Campus” Team you will be competing on.

Continuing on the same screen, fill out the registration form by typing your name, e-mail, password, age group, participation level and work zip code.

Click “Submit.”

Our next CAC meeting will be held Monday November 2, 2009 from 1:00pm-2:30p in Room 222D
