

CAC Meeting Highlights – December 2009

Martin Beverly, Campus Security:

- Please adherence to 15 mph speed limit,
- Students parking in faculty/staff lot will be cited and subject to have car impounded
- ‘Say something’ to security if you see something that doesn’t look right.
- Stop signs will be posted and aisle numbers issued as safety measures
- SouthShore will start conducting safety evacuations and fire drills

Smoking on Campus:

- Breathe easy signage has been replaced by No Smoking signs
- Dean Stancil encourages all to participate in telling others that SouthShore is a non smoking campus and to ask others not to smoke on campus.

Dean Stancil:

- Dean Stancil announced that Judy Nolasco was selected as the Academic Dean and would be starting in January
- Dean Stancil is in discussion with legal to find out what needs to be done to contract a counselor for Southshore
- Discussed the WiFi problem at Southshore and stated that it had to do with the building construction itself and issues similar to webadvisor when too many people try to gain access at one time. For now, students are asked to contact the helpdesk and to make sure that they supply contact information to the helpdesk staff.

GO Green Initiative: Online suggestion/comment form:

- The CAC is working with Myra Williams to implement an online form that will allow comments/suggestions to be submitted to CAC for discussion.

Learning Management System:

- The recommendation deadline has been extended until the end of the Spring semester
- Floyd Ballard asked that we look at additional criteria such as compatibility with current online classrooms and ability to allow faculty to develop their own page. Look for upcoming round table meetings to discuss any concerns/criteria.

Additional Clubs on Campus:

- Student member, Selwyn Baptiste discussed the possibility of starting a Collegiate 100 chapter at Southshore. He will be meeting with SGA advisor, Maria Torres for more information on requirements.

Campus Participation:

- A discussion was held on ways in which to solicit more participation in the CAC. The possibility of using social networking sites, televisions in the cyber café, computer room, and student services, and posting meeting flyers on the bulletin boards in classrooms were discussed

Our next Campus Advisory Council meeting will be held on Monday
February 1, 2010 in Room 222D. We hope to see you there.
