Michel Delgado's "Prescriptions" Brings Outsider, Intuitive, Visionary Art to HCC-Ybor Campus

The Ybor Campus Art Gallery will present an exhibition of outsider, intuitive, visionary paintings by Senegalese-born, Key West-based artist Michel Delgado during the month of February. The reception with the artist will take place Thursday, February 3, from 5:30pm to 8pm with his Gallery Talk at 7pm. The gallery is located on the first floor of the Performing Arts Building and is free and open to the public. Classes are welcome. The artist talk is also free and open to the public. Guests are welcome.

Energy defines who Michel Delgado is and what he does. Delgado's persona--self-reflective, honest, spiritual, humorous—is quietly electric. His art is intensely powerful. It is art that hits us first in the gut and heart, then our minds as we reflect upon the subject or the story he is telling. Unabashed and daring, bold and bright, Delgado's concern about the human condition is apparent in all he paints.

Tragedy, abuse, the mundane moments of everyday being, the happiness we know, the fears we keep at bay, the stories of life. Each painted with the intense energy—an energy that literally flows off the canvas to permeate our hearts and minds.

"The surface of my paintings is a glimpse of how I struggle a lot with the worlds between dream states," says Delgado. "When I dream I want so badly to manifest it in my life—I work to recognize it emotionally and physically. You need discipline to achieve that dream of fantasy or desire. It's always going to exist between you and reality. Feeding from that part of you is very creative, and each time I add something from that to my paintings it becomes a little more tangible, even though it can never fully fit into reality."

Gallery hours are Mon and Weds-Fri 10am to 4pm and Tuesdays noon to 7pm. For further details please contact Carolyn Kossar, 813.253.7674, ckossar@hccfl.edu.
