

Instructions for Copying the MAC 1105 Master Course in MathXL

- 1) Log into MathXL at www.mathxl.com
- 2) Click on
- 3) Click on
- 4) On the subsequent screen (shown below), follow the instructions in red. When you get to the step where you have to enter the course ID, you can copy and paste it from here: XL0L-U1DM-701Y-2JC2

The screenshot shows the 'New Course' form with the following elements and annotations:

- Progress Bar: 1 Start (highlighted), 2 Availability, 3 Course Access, 4 Coverage, 5 Learning Aids and Test Options.
- Type of course to create: Standard (dropdown menu). Annotation: First, choose "Standard" from the drop-down menu. Then enter a descriptive course name, such as "FA11 MAC 1105 Section #####" in the course name box.
- Course name: [Empty text box]
- How would you like to create your course?:
  - Create a new course
  - Create a new preloaded course
  - Copy one of my existing courses
  - Copy a course from another instructor at my school
  - Copy a course by specifying its Course ID Annotation: Next, click on this option.
- Course ID Input: [Empty text box] - [Empty text box] - [Empty text box] - [Empty text box]. Annotation: Switch to single box for pasting your Course ID
- Sample Course ID: XLAB-C1JK-2MNO-0YZ3
- Buttons: Cancel (bottom left),  (bottom right). Annotation: Then click here so that you can paste the Course ID into a single box. The Course ID is XL0L-U1DM-701Y-2JC2

- 5) Follow the remaining instructions to finish creating your course.
- 6) In the  enter Due Dates for your assignments. The due dates should fall before the test on the material.