

HCC YBOR CITY CAMPUS ART GALLERY EXHIBITION SCHEDULE (Updated 9/2/2008)

Exhibit Dates	Opening Reception	Information
September 10 - October 24, 2008	September 10, 2008 7:30-9:30pm	The Gallery is honored to present the exhibition “Just Suppose,” photographs by renowned Florida photographers Jerry Uelsmann and his wife Maggie Taylor . Jerry Uelsmann has changed the place of photography in art history by approaching the manipulation of photo negatives and printing in the darkroom in a completely new way. Maggie Taylor works in digital imagery. In a typical piece 40-60 layers of combined, scanned, composed and colorized materials result in an eclectic vision.
October and November, 2008	October 30, 2008 5-8pm	During the gallery will continue its support of Hispanic Heritage presenting a Student Exhibit reflecting on Tampa’s Hispanic identity: Art, Heart and Soul—Title is open...
November 25-December 12, 2008	November 25, 2008 6-8:00pm	In our ninth year of partnership, the gallery will host the Howard W. Blake Art Magnet School’s Senior Masters Exhibition with juried winners receiving HCC Art Department tuition scholarships.
January, 2009	January 8 or 9, 2009	HCC’s Special Projects Manager and Film Festival Artistic Director David Audet will install new mixed media work.
February and March, 2009	February 12, 2009	Atlanta artist and educator Linda Armstrong has agreed to present an exhibit in printmaking and sculpture. Ms. Armstrong is Director, Visual Arts Program in Sculpture at Emory College in Atlanta and an avid environmentalist.
April 1 – 5, 2009	To be determined	An exhibit by Tampa photographer Lori Ballard and Gulfport graphic artist Steve Smith will serve as an artistic component of the 7th Annual Festival of the Moving Image, influenced by its 2009 theme of “humor and satire.”
April 16 - May 8, 2009	To be determined	The 35th Annual HCC Juried Student Art Exhibition will take place. Juried winners receive scholarships from Tampa’s art support group Las Damas De Arte.
May 14 - June 11, 2009	To be determined	Tampa artist Carolina Cleere exhibits her large, digital, hand-painted photographs.
To be determined	To be determined	The gallery will continue its outreach program that supports kids at risk through our Tampa Neighborhoods Documentary Project with Community Stepping Stones of Sulphur Springs. This exhibit will consist of wall photographs, paintings, drawing and mixed media sculpture documenting their neighborhood, under the direction former HCC Adjunct Professor of Art Ed Ross and Michael Parker of USF. In our seventh year of partnership we are happy to announce that Community Stepping Stones continues to enroll students from their program to HCC’s Ybor City Campus.
June and July, 2009	To be determined	The gallery will host Summer Student Exhibitions.
August and September, 2009	To be determined	We will highlight the unique sculpture of University of Tampa and HCC adjunct art faculty member Roger Chamieh.
