Collegiate 100 Constitution

Article I. PREAMBLE

We hereby introduce the organization by the name of Collegiate 100. The organization will abide by the mission and goals of Hillsborough Community College. It is understood and agreed to that no official club or organization of Hillsborough Community College will sponsor or participate in practices or events which take place on Sunday. Travel and

Article II. NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1: The name of the organization is Collegiate 100.
Section 2: The purpose of this organization is mentorship, community service and leadership development.

Article III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: All members must be registered students of Hillsborough Community College, all students must maintain a GPA of at least a 2.0 and be at least part time student.
Section 2: The organization is open to all students. Although the organization is affiliated with the 100 Black Men of Tampa Bay, females can be at-large members of the organization.
Section 3: Dues will be decided each year by the organizations advisor, president, vice-president, treasurer and secretary.

Article IV. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Section 1. Definition of Officers
A. List of Officers - President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary
B. Length of Term - 1 Academic Year
C. Officers are selected by organization members by a vote each Fall semester. Whoever has the most votes will win that particular office.
D. The organizations will meet monthly (day to be determined by organization members) and all reports will be taken by the secretary.
Section 2: Duties of Officers and Advisor
A. The President is the presiding officer over the whole organization. The Vice-President is second in command after the president, if something happens to the president then the VP shall take over as the presiding officer. The Treasurer will be responsible for keeping the organization abreast to the current budget. The secretary will keep the minutes for all meetings that take place.
B. The Advisor will have to approve any transactions that the organization will like to make, also he/she is responsible for giving the green light to any activities that the organization would like to take part in.
C. An officer can impeached if he conducts himself in a manner unbefitting of a member of the Collegiate 100 organization (enrollment status below part time, GPA below a 2.5, theft, utter disregard of the well-being of the organization).
D. The impeachment process will be include meetings with the organization advisor, the officer in question, the Student Activities Coordinator and the Dean of Student Services. After the conference with all parties a decision will be made.

Section 3: Duties of Members
A. Members are required to at least attend 50% of all meetings and participate in at least 75% of community service projects, workshops and mentoring meetings.
B. Club members run the risk of being dismissed if they do not attend the required meetings, workshops and projects.

Section 4: Meetings
A. Meetings will be scheduled once a month for the Collegiate 100 members. The time and location will be determined by the members.

Section 5: By-Laws
A. No existing by-laws at this time
E. ARTICLE IV: AMENDMENTS

Section 1: All amendments to this constitution, changes or additions, must be approved by the Student Services Committee. A new copy of the constitution, accompanied by a letter requesting examination, must be submitted to Director of Student Activities. No changes will be considered permanent until approved by the Student Services Committee. The new constitution shall be submitted on disk in Word or WordPerfect, and in hard copy.