The student will choose an agency that works towards justice in one of the areas we have discussed this semester. Identify and provide an overview of an agency and the main purpose of the organization to include how this organization works towards justice. Discuss recent successes to include any success stories which support the agency. If you identified any issues then discuss those concerns and elaborate on how/what did the agency do to correct any issues and/or deficiencies that made the agency work towards justice. The paper will be a minimum of 3 pages, double space. It must also include a title page and a reference page which must contain a minimum of three (3) sources of information. On December 7 & 9, be prepared to verbally present your paper and answer questions from your class colleagues. Failure to submit the draft paper on time will be subject to a reduction of five (5) point towards the final grade. Failure to submit the final paper on time will be subject to a reduction of ten (10) points towards the final grade.
