IN THE NEWS …

Hawk Media club Student Publications Earn National and State Awards…

The 2008-2009 publications year has been a banner period for the Hillsborough community College Student Publications! In October, the Associated collegiate Press (ACP) announced the 2008 Galeria was a nominee for the Pacemaker Award. The Magazine Pacemaker awards honor general excellence in collegiate magazines and are divided into two categories: Feature and Literary magazines. The Galeria is one of two Community college publications in the nation nominated for this prestigious award. The Triad unseated Miami-Dade’s Miambiance as the state’s top literary magazine for The first time this decade! The Hawkeye newspaper also garnered to individual first place awards! Congratulations to our students and their sponsors: Dr. Richard F. Gaspar, Dr. Jeneice Sumner, and Ms. Valerie Zell.

Brandy Stark…Adjunct humanities instructor, won first place for 3-D art at the TESA Members Show at the Leepa Rattner Museum. The work was “Cat and Mouse.” She Also won second place for 3-D at the Necronomicon Art Show 2009 for “Southern Belle.” Congratulations Brandy!

The Early Literacy Matters (ELM) Program will be the recipient for this year’s borders Winter Book Drive! This will be the second year Borders has selected to support the ELM Program. Last year, over 5000 books were donated and 100% of the books go directly to preschool children in the community. The book drive will run from 11/14 through 12/24. If you have any questions, please contact Marni Fuente, Program Manager Early Literacy Matters – 813-259-6415

Suzanne Crosby… has an exhibition of photography opening Nov. 19th at the Florida Museum of Photographic Arts in downtown Tampa. The exhibit is entitled “Kid City” with recent works by Suzanne Camp Crosby. Adorable!

Ybor City Campus Advisory Council (CAC) Corner…

The Ybor City CAC would like to encourage everyone to get healthy! The CAC has been promoting and participating in The Walking Works Fall Fitness Challenge. It is an amazing way to get healthier within a fun and friendly environment. Along with getting healthy, the Ybor campus is in a healthy competition with the other campuses. So we need you to help us out. You can visit www.walkingworks.com or feel free to contact Katen Amin, the team captain for Ybor, if you have any questions at all.

Continuing with the healthy theme, the Ybor City CAC is also helping to promote the Heartwalk on November 14, 2009. Please consider joining a team and promoting a great cause. If you have not ever done so, please take a moment to visit the Ybor City CAC’s webpage (there is link on the Ybor Campus homepage). It has been updated and has an online “What’s On Your Mind Form” available to make it easier for you to give suggestions on how to make the Ybor Campus the best that it can be. We welcome your input.

We meet the first Friday of the month. Our next meeting is Friday, November 6, 2009 at 11:00 a.m. in YPST 320. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend. It is your opportunity to hear what is going on in Ybor as well as to have your own voice heard on important matters to you.
