The HCC Ybor Campus Photography Club will be taking a field trip to the Tampa Museum of Art on March 19th to view the works of American photographer Garry Winogrand. The club will gather at the Visual Arts Building (YVAB) at 10:30am, or individuals can meet the club at the Museum when it opens at 11 am.

According to the museum’s website, “Winogrand has become known for a street-style of photography characterized by a wide-angle lens and 35mm camera, available light and unposed subjects, and countless exposures. The critically accepted view of Winogrand has been that his ‘ambition was not to make good pictures, but through photography to know life.’ The museum is presenting its entire holdings from the Women are Beautiful series to let us revisit this assessment of the photographer’s purpose and place.” The museum also states that Winogrand took an innovated approach to his work: “More than a mere recorder of his world, Winogrand long held a strong interest in discovering the subject through his process of capturing it. He eschewed earlier approaches of photographers such as Edward Weston, who pre-visualized the final work, preferring instead the immediacy of the streets and gaining more joy in the taking of photographs than in the actual developing of them. At his death in 1982, he left more than 700 rolls of yet-to-be developed film.”

University of Tampa Exhibit features HCC Ybor City Mainstage Theatre Events.

“ON STAGE; Tampa Bay Photography” by Jim Lennon is now on display at the University of Tampa’s Scarfone / Hartley Gallery on North Blvd. This exhibit of Jim Lennon’s remarkable high resolution digital photos of Tampa Bay’s resident and guest performing artists in action is a memorable exhibit that I would recommend regardless of the fact that approximately 30% of the exhibit are photos of events on our HCC Ybor City Campus Mainstage Theatre over the past year and a half. Mr. Lennon’s work was funded by a grant from the Arts Council of Hillsborough County.

Events from Visual and Performing Arts Series, Chamber Music Ybor, as well as Four Days of Dance, are all prominently featured in the exhibit. The exhibit is a visual reminder of why some in the arts community consider HCC’s Ybor Campus’s Visual and Performing Arts Series the leading presenter of contemporary dance, music and theatre in the Tampa Bay area.

Mark Your Calendar – International Festival Coming April 7

The 12th Annual International Festival at the Ybor Campus will be on Wednesday, April 7. There will be, as usual, wonderful displays of crafts from all the different countries in the world, as well as international food samples, and great performances. The festivities will begin in the morning with the Parade of Flags.

The public celebration of women’s history in this country began in 1978 as "Women’s History Week" in Sonoma County, California. In 1981 a Congressional resolution proclaimed a national Women's History Week. In 1987, Congress expanded the celebration to a month,
The next in a series of “Courageous Conversations,” open to all faculty members, staff and students, is set for Friday, March 19 at 1:30pm in the Ybor Room.

The purpose of the conversations is to provide an open forum for frank discussions of what motivates individuals who call the HCC Ybor City Campus home.

The conversations have lead to the formation of three committees: the Campus Learning Council, the Campus Planning Council, and the Campus President’s Community Forum. All the committees still have room to add interested members of the HCC Ybor City Campus. Details, including notes from the previous meetings, can be found on the HCC Ybor City Campus web page by clicking “Campus Information” on the left-side menu, and then clicking “Courageous Conversations,” also found on the left menu.

CJSA Community Event

The Criminal Justice Student Association is presenting a Community Awareness Event and Donation Drive on Tuesday, March 16 from 5 pm to 7 pm in the Ybor Room.

The Boys and Girls Club, the Spring of Tampa Bay and Metropolitan Ministries will be there to present to accept donations. The donations needed in this drive include all types of hygiene products, diapers and canned food.
