Global Themes and Integrated Learning

Hillsborough Community College
April 2008
Your Presenters

Mary Allen, Interim Director of Student Success

Philip Bishop, former Coordinator of Learning Communities

Valencia Community College
Our purpose

Helping you design an integrated assignment around a global theme or topic for your learning communities

Helping you build a community of practitioners around your learning community program
Getting Organized

- Name plates
- Dialogue groups
- Roles
Overview

- Discussion: Your hopes and concerns
- Planning your integrated assignment
  - Theme
  - Activities
  - Integrative learning
  - Learning outcomes
  - Assessment
Your needs for today
LC’s at Hillsborough

Two courses enrolling a single cohort of students, taught by faculty partners who connect their two disciplines around a global theme and create together a cohesive and engaged community of learners.
Your hopes and concerns

1. What hopes do you have about this program at your college? What promise do you see?

2. What concerns do you have about this program at your college? What challenges do you see?

3. What questions are you pondering as you prepare for this program? What are you grappling with?
Discuss

• Go around the circle and speak from your heart

• Mirror to be sure you’ve understood

• Make a note of something you hear
Debrief

• Your hopes

• The challenges you see

• What you’re grappling with