PURPOSE

This rule establishes College policy regarding delinquent accounts owed to the College.

RULE

The Board of Trustees will exert every reasonable effort to collect all delinquent accounts. The Board authorizes and directs the President or designee to establish related procedures regarding collection of financial obligations and delinquent accounts in accordance with the Florida Statutes and State Board of Education Rules.

The College will implement steps to collect delinquent accounts which may include settling or charge off accounts that are uncollectible or utilizing a collection agency. Annually, the College will advise the Board of Trustees of those accounts that are deemed uncollectible and should be written-off.
